SECTION G. CONTRACT ADMINISTRATION DATA

G.1 FUNDING AND FINANCIAL ADMINISTRATION

Payment of the contractor's cost shall be made in accordance with Part II, Contract Clauses, and Parts C and D below.

No Job Corps funds shall be provided to pay compensation to any individual, either as a direct cost or as an indirect cost, or proration at a rate in excess of Executive Level II ($154,700 per year.) Proration means that the amount charged for a less than full-time employee cannot exceed an annualized rate of $154,700. Compensation is defined as salaries and cash bonuses exclusively. This does not include fringe benefits. This applies to all functions within the Job Corps contract including subcontracted services.

The amount for which the contractor shall be reimbursed for construction and rehabilitation of Center facilities is given in Part A below. This amount shall be operative under this contract until such time as the Government may incrementally increase it.

The amount to be reimbursed to the contractor for purchased accountable property and the fixed day/month GSA rental charge exclusive of the GSA mileage charge and exclusive of excess personal property (as defined in the DOL Property Handbook for ET contractors, including revisions and amendments thereto), is given in Parts A and B below. This amount shall be operative under this contract until such time as the Government may incrementally increase it.

The contractor agrees that the costs generated under rehabilitation and equipment shall be maintained in a separate accounting classification to be entitled "Center Facilities and Equipment Accounts," as outlined in PRH, Chapter 5 and Appendix 502.

The Government and the contractor recognize that the estimated costs provided for in each of the two years of the initial contract period and in each of the option periods are solely for the individual periods designated and are not considered to be a cumulative amount. Therefore, if the contractor does not require the estimated costs for each designated contract period to meet the requirements of the contract, the Government reserves the right to reduce the estimated amount for that period to the amount of funds actually required for that period. This action shall take place after the completion of the designated period and the adjustment shall be applied to the total current estimated value of the contract.

The fixed and incentive fees shall be paid out of the operations, outreach/admissions, and/or career transition services funds.

C. Payment and Payment Due Date

1. Allowable Costs

In accordance with Clause 52.216-7, "Allowable Costs and Payment," the contractor shall be reimbursed for allowable, allocable costs incurred in performance of the work under this contract. In addition to reimbursements for direct costs incurred, the contractor shall be reimbursed for indirect costs in accordance with the FAR 42.7, "Indirect Cost Rates." Indirect Cost Rates shall be negotiated by the Department of Labor's Office of Cost Determination or other cognizant audit agency.

Indirect Costs applicable to this contract shall be calculated by applying a ☐ provisional, ☐ negotiated, or ☐ proposed rate to bases as shown below:

Indirect Cost	Base of Allocation	Rate for each Contract Year
		1	2	3	4	5
G&A	Total Costs, excluding G&A and Contractor's Fee
Overhead <input type="checkbox"/> Applicable <input type="checkbox"/> Not Applicable	Total Direct Salaries and Wages (<input type="checkbox"/> including/ <input type="checkbox"/> excluding fringe benefits)
Total Indirect Cost

For billing purposes, costs shall be calculated using the approved provisional rate as shown above, until a final rate is established. In the absence of an approved provisional rate, a negotiated/proposed rate shall be used.

In no event shall the reimbursement for G&A and overhead exceed the following ceiling:
G&A____%, Overhead____%

When final G&A and overhead rates are established, the total amount of Indirect Costs payable under this contract shall be determined by multiplying the final rate, or ceiling rate, whichever is lower, by the total amount of allowable costs incurred for Center operations, outreach/ admissions and career transition services. The total amount billed shall then be subtracted from this figure to determine the amount of G&A and overhead expense due to the contractor, or refund due to the Government in the event that the amount billed exceeds the total amount payable under the contract.

2. Fixed Fee (See Clause 52.216-08 (Mar-97))

3. Incentive Fee

Under the terms of this cost plus incentive fee contract, the contractor shall be paid a base fixed fee, and shall have the opportunity to earn an incentive fee and a performance excellence bonus based on achievement of goals. For purposes of this contract, the contractor's performance and the amount of incentive fee earned shall be determined annually at the close of the contract year, based on achievement of goals within Job Corps' Outcome Measurement System.

Annually, the Director of Job Corps will establish a performance range for the upcoming Program Year. The performance range will identify maximum and minimum incentive fee payment points as follows:

Maximum: level at which the contractor receives the maximum available incentive fee payment.

Minimum: level below which the contractor receives no incentive fee payment

Incremental incentive fee payment points will be established for each level of OMS performance (to one decimal point) within the established performance range.

In order to motivate and reward excellence in performance, those contracts whose performance exceeds the top of the National Performance Range will be eligible to earn a Performance Excellence Bonus. The bonus will be awarded for performance up to 10 OMS points above the top of the National Performance Range.

Performance ranges may fluctuate from year to year based on performance history for the preceding year. The contractor's performance will be evaluated based on the portion of the contract year that occurred during the Program Year for which the performance range was in effect.

Under the terms of this contract fixed and incentive fees for Center Operations shall be as follows:

Contract Year	Base Fixed Fee	Minimum Incentive Fee	Average Incentive Fee (Invoicing Level)	Maximum Incentive Fee	Maximum Performance Excellence Bonus
1	$	$0	$	$	$
2	$	$0	$	$	$

4. Payment Due Date--Payments under this contract shall be due on the 30th calendar day after the date of actual receipt of a proper invoice in the office designated to receive the invoice. A proper invoice is defined in E below. All payments shall be made using Electronic Funds Transfer.

5. Prompt Payment

The Prompt Payment Act, Public Law 97-177 (96 Stat. 85, 31 USC 1801), is applicable to payments under this contract and requires the payment to contractors of interest on overdue payments and improperly taken discounts. Determinations of interest due shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the Prompt Payment Act and Office of Management and Budget Circular A-125.

D. Limitation on Withholding of Payments

If more than one clause or schedule provision of this contract authorizes the temporary withholding of amounts otherwise payable to the contractor for work performed under this contract, the total of the amounts so withheld at any one time shall not exceed the greatest amount which may be withheld under any one such clause or schedule provision at that time, provided that this limitation shall not apply to:

1. Withholdings pursuant to any clause relating to wages or hours or employees;
2. Withholdings not specifically provided for by this contract; and
3. The recovery of overpayments.

E. Invoice Requirements

1. The contractor shall submit the original, plus two (2) copies, of the invoice claiming reimbursement for costs for provisional payment directly to the COTR for certification and forwarding to the cognizant payment office.

For incentive fee, the contractor shall invoice the government at an amount equal to the incentive fee that would be earned for performance at the midpoint of the established performance range. At the end of the contract year, the Contracting Officer shall evaluate performance in accordance with the incentive fee performance range, and shall adjust (add or reduce) the incentive fee paid to the level earned by the contractor. In addition, Performance Excellence Bonuses will be awarded at the end of the contract year, along with other incentive fees earned by the contractor.

Invoices shall be submitted not more frequently than twice a month. Each invoice must contain, at a minimum, the following:

- a. Name of the business concern or agency preparing invoice;
 - b. Date invoice is prepared;
 - c. Contract number; and
 - d. Name (where practicable), title, phone number and complete mailing address of responsible official to whom payment is to be sent.
2. Certification must be made that the amount vouchered does not exceed the amount of funds available in the contract.
 3. Standard Form 1034 shall be used for invoicing purposes and may be obtained from the GSA Regional Office. Each invoice shall be numbered consecutively and shall include costs, G&A, overhead, fixed and incentive fee incurred for the current period; and a report reflecting the cumulative total costs, G&A, overhead, and total cumulative fixed and incentive fee incurred.
 4. For the purpose of this contract the COTR is hereby designated the authorized representative for the Contracting Officer for processing provisional payment of invoices, cost contractor's invoices, cost contractor's detailed statement of costs, per the provisions of Clause 52.216-07, Allowable Cost and Payment, except that the final invoice shall be forwarded to the Contracting Officer. The right to determine whether costs are allowable, disallowable, or should be suspended is not redelegated, but is reserved for the Contracting Officer.

G.2 INTERPRETATION OR MODIFICATIONS

No oral statement of any person and no written statement of anyone other than the Contracting Officer shall modify or otherwise affect the terms or meaning of this contract. All requests for interpretations, modifications, or changes shall be made in writing to the Contracting Officer.

G.3 52.217-08--OPTION TO EXTEND SERVICES (NOV 1999)

The Government may require continued performance of any services within the limits and at the rates specified in the contract. These rates may be adjusted only as a result of revisions to prevailing labor rates provided by the Secretary of Labor. The option provision may be exercised more than once, but the total extension of performance hereunder shall not exceed 6 months. The Contracting Officer may exercise the option by written notice to the Contractor within 30 days.

G.4 52.217-09--OPTION TO EXTEND THE TERM OF CONTRACT (MAR 2000)

- (a) The Government may extend the term of this contract by written notice to the Contractor within 30 days; provided, that the Government gives the Contractor a preliminary written notice of its intent to extend at least 60 days before the contract expires. The preliminary notice does not commit the Government to an extension.
- (b) If the Government exercises this option, the extended contract shall be considered to include this option clause.
- (c) The total duration of this contract, including the exercise of any options under this clause, shall not exceed 5 years.

The contractor agrees that the estimated costs for operating the Job Corps Center and for providing outreach/admissions and/or career transition services (if applicable) in each of the option years shall be based on the agreed-to budget for ongoing expense in the preceding year, with an appropriate adjustment for price inflation using the same inflationary factor that is reflected in the Congressional Job Corps appropriation for the budget or program year in which the option year begins. The amounts shown in the Option Year budget table provided below are therefore considered provisional, except that the fixed and incentive fee amounts are considered final unless changed by subsequent bilateral contract modification.

G.5 OPTIONS

A. Contract Terms and Conditions for Options

The Contracting Officer shall analyze the option year cost in relation to the current market price in deciding whether to exercise the option. In addition, factors to be considered by the Contracting Officer in the awarding of the option include the contractor's performance compared to performance standards established by the Director of Job Corps, and the contractor's performance in terms of compliance and qualitative assessments.

In addition, there may be other factors impacting on the option year decision. These include other terms and conditions of the contract, fair market value of similar contracts, the necessity of reducing disruptions to operations, innovations, corporate support, audit results, special review findings, other sources regarding compliance with this contract, as well as DOL administrative considerations.

If consideration and analysis of the above factors indicate a new contract is most advantageous to the Government, the option shall not be exercised. If the analysis of the above factors results in a favorable determination that is advantageous to the Government, the option may be exercised.

B. Request for Change In Option Price

If, after exercise of the option, the contractor has reason to believe the total cost to the Government shall exceed the estimated cost as stated in the option, the contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer in accordance with FAR Clause 52.232-22, Limitation of Funds. If the Contracting Officer determines that an increase in the option year price is required, and is not caused by a change in the scope of work, such price increase, if made, shall not include an increase in fee. If the price increase requested is a result of a scope of work change, an equitable fee adjustment shall be considered.

G.6 LIQUIDATED DAMAGES FOR FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH REGULATIONS FOR SEPARATING STUDENTS

The contractor agrees to comply with the current requirements for separating students from the program. The contractor agrees further that the refundable cost to the Government for each day a student is retained (counted in the reported on-board strength) in violation of Job Corps requirements, is determined by dividing the "annual student cost" ("cost per student year"), as stated in the contract, by 365. If the annual student cost is not stated for any given year, it shall be computed by dividing the total contract amount for the year by the total planned average on-board strength.

G.7 LIQUIDATED DAMAGES FOR PLACEMENTS FOUND TO BE INVALID

The contractor shall be held financially responsible for the costs associated with placements found to be invalid, and shall be required to reimburse the government in the amount of $ _____ per invalid placement. Offerors should provide an explanation of these costs were developed in the Business Management Proposal.

SECTION H. SPECIAL CONTRACT REQUIREMENTS

H.1 CONTRACTOR'S GENERAL RESEARCH COST

It is specifically agreed that no part of the costs of the contractor's sponsored independent general research program shall be charged directly or indirectly to this contract.

H.2 PAYMENT OF ROYALTIES

Payments by the contractor of any sum for royalties or patent rights not included in the ordinary purchase price of standard commercial supplies shall not constitute items of allowable cost hereunder, unless and until approved by the Contracting Officer. Reimbursement to the contractor on account of any such payments shall not be construed as an admission by the Government of the enforceability, validity, scope, or title to any of the patents involved, nor shall any such reimbursement constitute a waiver of any rights or defenses respecting such patents.

H.3 DUPLICATION OF EFFORT

The contractor hereby certifies that costs of work to be performed under this contract and any subcontract hereunder are not duplicative of any costs charged against any other Government contract, subcontract, or other Government source. The contractor shall include the provisions of this paragraph in every subcontract issued hereunder which exceeds $2,500. The contractor agrees to advise the Contracting Officer in writing of any other Government contract or subcontract it has performed, or is performing, which involves work directly related to the purpose of this contract.

H.4 OTHER CONTRACTORS

The Government may undertake or award other contracts for the same, essentially similar, or related work, and the contractor shall fully cooperate with such other contractors and with Government employees. The contractor shall not commit or permit any act which shall interfere with the performance of work by any other contractor or by Government employees.

H.5 TRAVEL AND PER DIEM

All travel and per diem charges shall be in accordance with Federal Travel Regulations or those of the contractor, whichever is more restrictive. Current Federal Travel Regulations may be obtained from the Contracting Officer or at the following website: <http://policyworks.gov>.

The contractor shall request Regional Office approval prior to any out of Region travel that will be charged to this contract.

H.6 WAGE COMPARABILITY

- A. The contractor agrees: (1) to pay at least the prevailing applicable Federal minimum wage (refer to Section 6(a) (1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended); (2) that DOL shall reimburse for compensation in excess of the minimum only to the extent that such compensation does not exceed the standards set forth for reasonableness thereof in the applicable Cost Principles (FAR 31.2). In general compensation should be limited to an amount which does not exceed the wage or salary payable to persons providing substantially similar services in the area where the program is being carried out, or the area of the particular employee's immediately preceding employment, whichever is higher. The contractor agrees to submit a statement of wages and salaries as required under B below.
- B. As appropriate and required, the contractor shall pay Davis-Bacon and/or Service Contract prevailing wages and ensure that subcontractors follow those provisions. The contractor is liable for costs if wages are being paid below the prevailing rates. The Government is liable for costs if the contractor is paying the prevailing rates and a protest or problem occurs with those rates.

H.7 SERVICE CONTRACT ACT OF 1965, AS AMENDED

- A. The Service Contract Act of 1965 is not applicable to contracts for the operation and management of Job Corps Centers. However, subcontracts awarded by contractors operating and managing Job Corps Centers are subject to the Act to the same extent and under the same conditions as contracts made directly by the U.S. Department of Labor.
- B. Subcontracts awarded by contractors operating and managing Job Corps Centers shall include the applicable clause in FAR 22.10, with such modifications as would otherwise be inappropriate had the clause been included in the prime contract.
- C. In order that the requirements of FAR 22.10 may be complied with, the contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer not less than 45 days prior to issue of any invitation for bids or requests for proposals, or commencement of negotiations for any subcontract exceeding $2,500, which may be subject to the Act.
- D. The Department of Labor is responsible for obtaining prevailing wage rates for service type subcontracts and shall make applicable wage rates a part of this contract.

H.8 COMPLIANCE WITH COPELAND REGULATIONS

The contractor shall comply with the Copeland Regulations of the Secretary of Labor (29 CFR, Part 3) which are incorporated herein by reference.

H.9 WITHHOLDING

The Contracting Officer shall upon his/her own action or upon written request of an authorized representative of the Department of Labor withhold or cause to be withheld from the contractor under this contract or any other Federal contract with the same Prime Contractor, or any other Federally-assisted contract subject to Davis-Bacon prevailing wage requirements which is held by the same Prime Contractor, as much of the accrued payments or advances as may be considered necessary to pay laborers and mechanics, including apprentices, trainees, and helpers employed by the contractor or any subcontractor, the full amount of wages required by the contract. In the event of failure to pay any laborer or mechanic, including any apprentice, trainee, or helper, employed or working on the site of the work (or under the United States Housing Act of 1937 or the Housing Act of 1949 in the construction or development of the project), all or part of the wages required by the contract, the Contracting Officer may, after written notice to the Prime Contractor, sponsor, applicant, or owner, take such action as may be necessary to cause the suspension of any further payment, advance, or guarantee of funds until such violations have ceased.

H.10 RELIGIOUS AND POLITICAL ACTIVITY

The contractor agrees that it shall not perform or permit any religious proselytizing or political propagandizing in connection with the performance of this contract. H.15 PATENT RIGHTS

- A. Whenever any invention, improvement, or discovery (whether or not patentable) is made or conceived, or for the first time actually or constructively reduced to practice, by the contractor or its employees, in the course of, in connection with, or under the terms of, this contract, the contractor shall immediately give the Contracting Officer written notice thereof and shall promptly thereafter furnish the Contracting Officer complete information thereon; and the Contracting Officer shall have the sole and exclusive power to determine whether or not, and where, a patent application shall be filed, and to determine the disposition of all rights in such invention, improvement, or discovery, including title to, and rights under, any patent application or patent that may issue thereon. The determination of the Contracting Officer on all these matters shall be accepted as final and the provisions of the clause of this contract entitled "Disputes" shall not apply; and the contractor agrees that it shall, and warrants that all of its employees who may be the inventors shall, execute all documents and do all things necessary or proper to the effectuation of such determination.
- B. Except as otherwise authorized in writing by the Contracting Officer, the contractor shall obtain patent agreements to effectuate the provisions of this clause from all persons who perform any part of the work under this contract, except such clerical and manual labor personnel as shall have no access to technical data.
- C. Except as otherwise authorized in writing by the Contracting Officer, the contractor shall insert in each subcontract having experimental, developmental, or research work as one of its purposes provisions making this clause applicable to the subcontractor and its employees.
- D. If the Government obtains patent rights pursuant to this clause of this contract, the contractor shall be offered license rights thereto on terms at least as favorable as those offered to any other firm.

H.16 ELIMINATION OF SEXIST LANGUAGE AND ARTWORK

All written materials issued by a contractor shall conform to the following guidelines for eliminating sexist language and artwork:

 - ✓ Longshore workers instead of longshoremen.
- B. Avoid the use of male and female gender work forms.

- C. Include both sexes by using terms that refer to people as a whole.
 - ✓ Human beings or people instead of mankind.

 - ✓ The lawyer made her final summation.
- F. Avoid the use of stereotyped terms or expressions such as "man-sized" job.
 - ✓ Employee-years and employee-hours (or staff-hours) instead of man-years and man-hours.
- G. The use of artwork in publications should conform to the following guidelines:
 - ✓ Strive to use racially and sexually balanced designs.
 - ✓ Depict both men and women in artwork on general subject matters.
 - ✓ Show men and women in a variety of roles in photographs, illustrations, and drawings. For example, show men and women as managers and skilled laborers.

H.17 TITLES TO STUDIES

H.18 PRINTING AND DUPLICATING

This clause is applicable to all contracts which require printing/duplicating services as part of the contractor's performance.

The contractor shall comply with all duplicating and printing regulations issued by the Joint Committee on Printing under the authority of sections 103.501 and 502, Title 44, United States Code. The contractor agrees to and does hereby grant to the Government and to its officers, agents, and employees acting within the scope of their duties, a royalty-free nonexclusive and irrevocable license throughout the world, to publish, translate, reproduce, deliver, perform, dispose of, and to authorize others to do so. All subject data now or hereafter covered by copyright; provided that, with respect to such subject data not originated in the work furnished under this contract but which is incorporated in the work furnished under this contract, such license shall only be to the extent that the contractor, its employees or an individual or concern employed or assigned by the contractor to originate and prepare such data under this contract, nor has, or prior to completion or final settlement of this contract, may acquire the right, or grant such license, without becoming liable to pay compensation to others solely because of such grant.
- D. The contractor shall exert all reasonable effort to advise the Contracting Officer, at the time of delivery of the subject data furnished under this contract, of all portions of such data copied from work not composed or produced in the performance of this contract and licensed under this clause; provided that, if such subject data is included, evidence shall be submitted by the contractor of the copyright owner's consent to the use of such subject data by the contractor. In the absence of such consent, the contractor agrees not to furnish such subject data.

- E. The contractor shall report to the Contracting Officer promptly and in reasonably written detail, each notice of claim of copyright infringement received by the contractor with respect to all subject data delivered under this contract.
- F. The contractor shall indemnify and save and hold harmless the Government, its officers, agents and employees acting within the scope of their official duties against any liability, including costs and expenses, (i) for violation of proprietary rights, copyrights or right of privacy, arising out of the publication, translation, reproduction, delivery, performance, use, or disposition of any data furnished under this contract; or (ii) based upon any libelous or other unlawful matter contained in such data.

- G. Nothing contained in this clause shall imply a license to the Government under any patent or be construed as affecting the scope of any license or other right otherwise granted to the Government under any patent.
- H. The contractor shall not affix any restrictive markings upon any subject data, and if such markings are affixed, the Government shall have the right at any time to modify, remove, obliterate, or ignore any such markings.
- I. The contractor further agrees not to publish, have published, or otherwise disseminate any information of whatever nature resulting from the work being performed under this contract except as many be approved by the Department's Contracting Officer hereunder.
- J. The contractor agrees that the Department's Contracting Officer hereunder shall determine the disposition of the title to any rights under any Copyright secured by the contractor or its employees on copyrightable materials developed under this contract.
- K. Contractor agrees to preserve for a period of 36 months and, upon request of the Contracting Officer, make available to the Government for use, all scientific and technical information, data and know-how of any nature developed in performance of this contract and in connection with the contractor's activities on or related to this contract, regardless of whether such information, data and know-how was delivered and/or deliverable under the terms and provisions of this contract.

H.20 DISPOSITION OF MATERIAL

Upon termination or completion of all work under this contract, the contractor shall prepare for shipment, deliver F.O.B. destination, or dispose of all materials received from the Government and all residual materials produced in connection with the performance of this contract as may be directed by the Contracting Officer, or as specified in other provisions of this contract. All materials produced or required to be delivered under this contract become and remain the property of the Government.

H.21 CONSULTANTS

- A. Consultant(s) hired to perform under this contract may be compensated at a rate for time actually worked or at a fixed price for performance of a specific task, or at nominal compensation in accordance with the contractor's policies. Written approval from the Contracting Officer must be obtained before a consultant is hired, regardless of contract type (hourly, or fixed price).
- B. The amount or rate of payment shall be determined on a case-by-case basis taking into account (among any other relevant factors) the relative importance of the duties to be performed, the stature of the individual in their field, comparable pay for positions under the Classification Act or other Federal pay system (i.e., As a percent of maximum compared to GS ratings - GS-12, 55 percent, GS-13, 65 percent, GS-14, 75 percent, GS-15, 85 percent, SES-1, 96 percent, SES-2, 98 percent, SES-3, 100 percent), rates paid by private employers, and rates previously paid other experts or consultants for similar work.

The percentage of 65 ratings is provided as a guideline and is subject to change. In no event shall a consultant's allowable rate exceed $260 per normal workday regardless of the 65 percent ratings guide provided above. The $260 is exclusive of travel and per diem cost which may be added to the allowable consultant's rate.

- C. The contractor shall maintain a written report for the files of the results of all consultants charged to this contract. This report must include, as a minimum: (1) The consultant's name, dates, hours and amounts charged to the contract; (2) the names of the Contractor's staff to whom the services are provided; and (3) the result of the subject matter of the consultation.

H.22 USE OF THE AMERICA'S WORKFORCE NETWORK (AWN) BRAND

The official name for the nationwide system of providing employment and training through the Workforce Investment Act partnerships and various other federally sponsored programs is "America's Workforce Network." To achieve the goals of this contract, it is important that the public has a quick and easy method of identifying that the projects or programs they are taking part in are part of "America's Workforce Network." To provide this information to the public, the contractor agrees to place the "America's Workforce Network" logo, in accordance with the U.S. Department of Labor's guidelines for such use, on all public materials such as statements, press releases, brochures, advertisements, reports, and other documents describing projects or programs funded in whole or in part with Federal money.

When the America's Workforce Network logo is used, the contractor may accompany it with the following statement: "Job Corps is a Proud Member of America's Workforce Network."

The contractor shall not use the "America's Workforce Network" logo in any manner that would imply that the Department of Labor endorses a commercial product, service, or activity or that material of a nonofficial nature represents the U.S. Department of Labor.

The America's Workforce Network logo and user guidelines are available at www.jobcorps.org.

H.23 RENTAL COST OF FACILITIES

The contractor shall request Regional Office approval prior to incurring costs for any rental facilities beyond those specified in this contract.

H. 24 CLOSE-OUT PACKAGE

In accordance with Job Corps' Regional Office Closeout Procedures and 29 CFR 95.71, Closeout Procedures, the contractor shall submit an invoice marked "Final" no later than 90 calendar days after contract expiration. Pursuant to Clause 52.216-7, Allowable Cost and Payments, final indirect cost rates must be requested by the contractor from its cognizant federal agency no later than 180 calendar days after the close of each of the contractor's fiscal years. Immediately after the 180 calendar days for establishing final indirect cost rate for the last year of the contract, the contractor is allowed an additional 120 calendar days to submit a second final invoice.

Failure to comply with the time periods mentioned above may negatively impact a contractor's past effectiveness evaluation report and could affect future contract award decisions.

A closeout notification letter, documents and instructions will be provided by the Government 30 calendar days prior to the contract expiration.

C. The Contractor shall include the substance of this clause in all subcontracts under this contract that meet the applicability requirement of FAR 15.408(k).

I.4 52.244-2—Subcontracts Alternate II (AUG 1998)

(a) Definitions. As used in this clause-

"Approved purchasing system" means a Contractor's purchasing system that has been reviewed and approved in accordance with Part 44 of the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR).

"Consent to subcontract" means the Contracting Officer's written consent for the Contractor to enter into a particular subcontract.

"Subcontract" means any contract, as defined in FAR Subpart 2.1, entered into by a subcontractor to furnish supplies or services for performance of the prime contract or a subcontract. It includes, but is not limited to, purchase orders, and changes and modifications to purchase orders.

- (b) This clause does not apply to subcontracts for special test equipment when the contract contains the clause at FAR 52.245-18, Special Test Equipment.
- (c) When this clause is included in a fixed-price type contract, consent to subcontract is required only on unpriced contract actions (including unpriced modifications or unpriced delivery orders), and only if required in accordance with paragraph (d) or (e) of this clause.
- (d) If the Contractor does not have an approved purchasing system, consent to subcontract is required for any subcontract that-
 - (1) Is of the cost-reimbursement, time-and-materials, or labor-hour type; or
 - (2) Is fixed-price and exceeds-
 - (i) For a contract awarded by the Department of Defense, the Coast Guard, or the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, the greater of the simplified acquisition threshold or 5 percent of the total estimated cost of the contract; or
 - (ii) For a contract awarded by a civilian agency other than the Coast Guard and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, either the simplified acquisition threshold or 5 percent of the total estimated cost of the contract.
- (e) If the Contractor has an approved purchasing system, the Contractor nevertheless shall obtain the Contracting Officer's written consent before placing the following subcontracts:

Professional Health Services

- (f)(1) The Contractor shall notify the Contracting Officer reasonably in advance of placing any subcontract or modification thereof for which consent is required under paragraph (c), (d), or (e) of this clause, including the following information:

 - (ii) Identification of the type of subcontract to be used.

- (D) The extent, if any, to which the Contractor did not rely on the subcontractor's cost or pricing data in determining the price objective and in negotiating the final price;
- (E) The extent to which it was recognized in the negotiation that the subcontractor's cost or pricing data were not accurate, complete, or current; the action taken by the Contractor and the subcontractor; and the effect of any such defective data on the total price negotiated;
- (F) The reasons for any significant difference between the Contractor's price objective and the price negotiated; and
- (G) A complete explanation of the incentive fee or profit plan when incentives are used. The explanation shall identify each critical performance element, management decisions used to quantify each incentive element, reasons for the incentives, and a summary of all trade-off possibilities considered.

(2) If the Contractor has an approved purchasing system and consent is not required under paragraph (c), (d), or (e) of this clause, the Contractor nevertheless shall notify the Contracting Officer reasonably in advance of entering into any (i) cost-plus-fixed-fee subcontract, or (ii) fixed-price subcontract that exceeds either the simplified acquisition threshold or 5 percent of the total estimated cost of this contract. The notification shall include the information required by paragraphs (f)(1)(i) through (f)(1)(iv) of this clause

(g) Unless the consent or approval specifically provides otherwise, neither consent by the Contracting Officer to any subcontract nor approval of the Contractor's purchasing system shall constitute a determination-

- (1) Of the acceptability of any subcontract terms or conditions;
- (2) Of the allowability of any cost under this contract; or
- (3) To relieve the Contractor of any responsibility for performing this contract.

(h) No subcontract or modification thereof placed under this contract shall provide for payment on a cost-plus-a-percentage-of-cost basis, and any fee payable under cost-reimbursement type subcontracts shall not exceed the fee limitations in FAR 15.404-4(c)(4)(i).

To ensure that all cost and staffing proposals are evaluated fairly it is imperative that proposals be presented as clearly and as consistently as possible.

In addition to the presentation of staff resources by cost groups under the ETA 2110 format, it is necessary to display, for the purpose of evaluation, the number of staff by functional groups in accordance with the outline of the Statement of Work, Part I, Section C.

The following Staffing Chart shall be completed. The number of staff in each function shall be shown on this chart. The costs of each staff position shall be shown in the narrative justification for each ETA 2110 line of your cost proposal. It is realized that each contractor has its own manner of organizing its staff. However, for the purposes of this proposal, follow the outline of this staffing chart. Also, to assure cost proposal consistency please allocate each staff member cost in your cost proposal in accordance with the ETA 2110 Line Number and Cost Code as detailed in the PRH, Chapter 5, for each separate position. The line number and cost code may differ from Attachment E.

It is realized that different contractors have different position titles for similar functions. The Staffing Chart describes functions. Try to allocate your own staff titles to the functional titles on the chart wherever possible. In the event that a position is so unique that it shall not fit any title on the chart, place the position in the appropriate place on the chart and indicate by Line Number and/or Cost Code where it can be found in your cost proposal.

Definitions.

1. Function. The major purpose of the position.
2. Sub-Function. A more precise description than the function. If none is needed do not complete the column.
3. Line Number. The ETA 2110 cost line number. See PRH, Chapter 5.
4. Cost Code. The cost reference code from the instructions in the PRH, Chapter 5, Appendix 502.
5. Number. The number of staff at each position title. If none are proposed, leave the line blank. If one person performs more than one function or one person performs the same function in two or more different functional areas, show the allocation of that person's time as a decimal (e.g., .5) allocation to the proper line.
6. Remarks. The Center title, if different from the function title shown, and any comments you wish to make
7. Note. If a position is contracted show the number in parentheses () and indicate the Line Number and Cost Code to which the cost is charged in the remarks column.

STAFF RESOURCE FORMS - offerors are required to complete these forms as a part of their Staff Resources Plan. Failure to do so may qualify the technical proposal as non-responsive to this RFP.

C. Day Instructional Staff

The purpose of this form is to account for every student on center in a typical instructional day and every staff who has instructional responsibility for students. Include teachers, instructors, and other personnel individually and account for all students assigned to off center programs as well. Each column should add to the design capacity of the center which is ____ One should also be aware that at this center roughly 20% per cent of students are full-time vocational training students at any one time. This may or may not change depending on an offeror's training design, of course, and is provided for information/planning purposes only. If you believe that more vocational training slots are necessary than this RFP calls for, this should be noted by adding suggested trades to the chart. The following is an example for the numbers of students and the number of class periods, only to demonstrate how the form is to be completed.

Attachment J-6 (Page 2 of 4)B. Residential Staffing

The purpose of this form is to account for all staff in the residential program who have direct student contact. Though this form specifies RA's and Recreation staff and security personnel, other designations are possible and these forms may be modified to show this.

D. Residential Advisor Staffing

Where a staff covers two areas, apportion time accordingly. For instance, if a senior RA covers two dorms on a shift, put .5 senior RA in one dorm and .5 in the other. Include all levels of adult dorm staffing excluding managerial and administrative personnel. If an area appears to be staffed low but there are extenuating circumstances such as higher qualified staff proposed, independent living or honor dorm situations, explain succinctly below that dorm staffing in the comments section.

Dorm number _____

Day shift staffing _____ RA's for _____ hours. Shift starts _____ and ends _____.
 Prime shift staffing _____ RA's for _____ hours. Shift starts _____ and ends _____.
 Late shift staffing _____ RA's for _____ hours. Shift starts _____ and ends _____.

Variance staffing (such as weekends)

Day shift staffing _____ RA's for _____ hours. Shift starts _____ and ends _____.
 Prime shift staffing _____ RA's for _____ hours. Shift starts _____ and ends _____.
 Late shift staffing _____ RA's for _____ hours. Shift starts _____ and ends _____.

Number of staff hours in this dorm on typical 7 day week _____. This should be calculated by multiplying the number of RA's times the number of hours for each shift for the entire week. Number of staff dedicated to this dormitory _____. This should be the staff hours divided by 40.

Comments:

REPEAT THE ABOVE PROCESS FOR EVERY DORM THEN COMPLETE THE SUMMARY:

Number of RA's calculated above _____
 Additional staffing such as substitute RA's _____

Total Dorm Staffing _____

Attachment J-6 (Page 3 of 4)E. Security Staffing

 Prime shift staffing _____ Staff for _____ hours. Shift starts _____ and ends _____.
 Late shift staffing _____ Staff for _____ hours. Shift starts _____ and ends _____

ATTACHMENT J-24 (Page 1 of 16)RDGRAM #1*GED - A perspective

Many of you are struggling with your Education component and I applaud your efforts because if we don't wrestle this problem it, like the proverbial bear, will eat us alive. Some of you, in groups and individually, have asked me what I thought an education program ought to look like. I suspect that some of those inquiries are based partially on the fact that you know I go straight to the instructional areas when I visit centers but also on the fact that you are trying to make the necessary improvements in your programs and you acknowledge you need all the help you can get. I feel for you.

My response is that I believe there are some characteristics to top programs beyond data that predict success. I look for these, especially if a center is not meeting expectations. I am instructing my PM's to also look for these. Maybe they aren't all in the PAG or all that is included in the PAG but they make sense to me.

Physical Environment. There should be three physical areas in each classroom or at least three balanced areas of effort in each class.

First there is what we see a lot of - individual seat work. This is filling out those workbooks and taking the tests. Some centers, unfortunately, do little else. That's boring for many students and they either sleep, let their minds drift or act out, thereby selecting themselves out of the program.

Then there is computer work. Every class should have students on computers doing individual projects (these are best vocationally individualized) or using self-paced tutorial software. Most classes need 3-5 computers. This should not be seen as a reward for doing the "real work," it is part of the required real work.

What is most often lacking in our classrooms are group projects. Students within a class are grouped in three's and four's and given assignments which are due on a particular day requiring them to work together to solve problems and make presentations or write reports. Once again, good programs do not see these projects as "add-on's." This is a good place for applied learning (trade-related) wherein students use what they learn in real-world contexts.

Students feel that they need each other in order to complete the group's task. They "sink or swim" together. One person's efforts cannot carry the entire group. Positive interdependence can be established through mutual goals, joint rewards, shared materials and information and assigned roles.

Outside Resources. There should be a steady flow of speakers and tutors (more about them later) coming on centers. You know I am fond of saying a lot of good chickens have given their lives for Job Corps CRC's, well this is one way CRC's give something back. The intensity of their effort in this area is the best measure of the efficacy of your community relations program, particularly when this is your biggest area of need. The Industry Advisory Council (IAC), not totally functioning at every Center yet, is another source of speakers, instructors and tutors from local industries involved with the Center.

Tutors. Some folks see the evening hours as belonging to students. I agree. But so do the daytime hours. Students who are falling behind require more work and they should be required to do it. This must be provided in a somewhat relaxed learning environment with a caring tutor. They must develop study habits and learn to utilize reference materials and resources. Students must be told this may be required of them in CPP and once you have made this center policy, tell the AC's who serve you. I see this as a different situation than vocational training, incidentally, where more than 8 hours might be physically tiring to the point of a safety problem. Besides, even with tutoring in the late afternoon, evening or weekend, it is unlikely a 40 hour week will be exceeded by very much for any student.

Know the students. This also means teachers and staff need to be better able to recognize students who have learning disabilities (may require some training), and deal with this. Centers must have adequate assessment capability and the means to tailor the program to meet these students' needs.

A sense of urgency. Nothing succeeds in Job Corps like a sense of urgency to succeed. Teachers must not succumb to the "Oh, he's just working at his own pace" mode. All students must work at the maximum pace they can withstand and still learn effectively. Teachers learn their students needs and capabilities and insist students stretch to learn at this accelerated pace.

Accountability. Teachers must accept responsibility for the outcomes of their students. But that also means managers have to listen to the real needs of their teachers.

The Student Employee. Without being overbearing, teachers must consistently and repeatedly treat their classes as employee development classes where the learning will produce better outcomes for the "company." And students must be treated as student employees. Not, "Why are you sleeping in class?" Rather, "Where have you ever worked where employees were allowed to sleep on the job?" Students who are truly too sick to stay awake need medical attention. Students who sleep because class is boring need more than caffeine, they need better, more varied, instruction.

I welcome your comments.

RDGRAM #2

Human Resources

The tangible resources we have to make the Job Corps program work are considerable though often more limited than we'd like. They consist largely of people, facilities and funds. Managing these three is critical to providing service to students. Here are the sorts of things I look for in human resources. We'll talk facilities and finances in later RDGram's.

Our most precious resource is our people. The students and staff, effectively employed, will make our students a success and insure the viability of our program.

Students as Resource.

I have never been on a successful Job Corps Center where the students are not being used to help run the program. I am not talking about center support or KP students here. They are necessary but play a minor role. It is how we involve students in decision making that is the key to success. Here are some things to check:

- Who runs the SGA meetings? If it is staff, there's a problem.
- Are changes in rules suggested by SGA? If they don't see this as one of their roles, you are missing an opportunity.
- Are rule changes discussed with them before implementation and, if so, are you just looking for a rubber stamp? A little involvement and willingness to negotiate won't be seen as a weakness and you will have their support.
- How comfortable is the president of SGA in talking to the CD? This is a critical relationship.
- How hard is it to establish and maintain the various SGA committees? This might say something about how well you use what they recommend.
- Does the center self-assessment plan use focus groups and student interviews to shape policy? A focus group session should be designed to listen to students not explain things to them. The moderator keeps the group focused and elicits specifics but doesn't offer reasons or excuses.

Staff as Resource.

Having been a staff member on a Job Corps Center many years ago and having monitored Job Corps Centers for over 15 years, I can assure you that not much has changed concerning what can be done to insure staff effectiveness. Here are some things to check:

In numbers 2-5 above, substitute the words "line staff@ for ASGA." Get the picture? Now about staff training. Here are common problems found in staff training:

Staff training isn't, itself, staffed. No one has a realistic chance of freeing themselves up to actually provide the training or attending it.

Training is rarely scheduled outside the holiday break periods.

There's no system for making up missed training.

There's no tracking of training. Is there a list of who is supposed to have what training annually, quarterly and monthly and can it be easily determined at any time what staff still need what training?

There are lots of user-friendly computer applications to help you do this.

There's no training course outline of what will be taught. Lesson plans would be nice but a simple course outline would at least insure trainers knew what needed to be covered.

There are concrete expectations of learning. At least in our most important training sessions, shouldn't there a way to tell who actually learned what was taught? Maybe its just the old school teacher coming out in me but in most training I do I, at a minimum, give a pretest to at least get folks attention and demonstrate to them they really do need the training. For most staff training, however, staff could be told what expectations management has for those who have had the training. I try to make this clear in my training of my staff. "With knowledge," I tell them, "comes responsibility."

Staff performance management. Every center operator has a performance management system and some are quite good. Here are some things to check:

Are staff performance standards tailored not just to "level of effort" but to specific outcomes as well? Are they tailored to the exact position being filled? We see a lot of level of effort standards (e.g. comes to work on time, interacts well with students, etc.) And some across the board outcomes (e.g. the center maintains 100% OBS) but very often the reading teacher's standards, for instance, do not relate to the percentage or number of students they move through the reading program into GED. Vocational instructors could have standards which relate to their outcomes as reported in the VES 10. If statistical outcomes are included in the standard, they should be closely related to the staff's work so that staff can see how what they do directly affects that outcome.

Are the incentives given meaningful? Not only must the goals in standards be attainable through individual and group effort, they must be worth the extra effort a staff might have to make to get them. And we can say that staff can be rewarded in ways other than their pocketbook, and they can, but money talks. Contract center operators can design their appraisal and incentive system a number of inventive ways but the bottom line should be that extra effort and star performance are significantly rewarded.

Is there evidence that the full range of performance ratings are used and that ratings are consistent from one department to another? Good organizations find ways to insure folks on performance improvement plans get significantly lower ratings than star performers - across the entire organization.

So there are some things to think about. Are they DOL requirements? No, not at all. Many of the things mentioned above may be absent and a center still perform well. There are more ways to achieve excellence than through any checklist this RDGram might be turned into. But if your center is having difficulty in any of these areas, at least assess your needs there and know we will certainly ask these questions.

As with all RDGrams, please share this with all your staff but with students only as you deem appropriate.

I welcome your comments.

ATTACHMENT J-24 (Page 6 of 16)RDGRAM #3*Environment

The environment of a Job Corps Center is made up largely of the people, their attitudes, and the facilities. How the facility presents itself is very telling. This time I would like to address the physical environment and how it is maintained.

What we look for is a place that looks as if students are welcome there and promises hope and challenge. From the cleanliness of the floors to the posters on the walls to the lights on the ceiling, students ought to know they have come to a place that is more than a school, more than an institution and certainly more than simply refuge. The facility should reflect the energy and caring of the program.

First, dorm rooms. Are there photos of students and of the families/sweethearts of students displayed around the room? Are there posters reflecting student interests, selected by students, displayed in dorm rooms? Do the students, within reason, get to say how their room is decorated? Are there attractive non-institutional bedcovers and rugs?

Many of our dormitory facilities need furniture and there isn't enough money to replace it all but what is being done with what is there and what excess sources have been actively sought for better furniture?

Is the classroom environment arranged and decorated so that students appear challenged to learn? Is progress charted and visible? Are vocational shops laid out and decorated to emulate a workplace? Are there safety posters in conspicuous places.

Is the cafeteria a friendly inviting place to eat? Is the menu posted and accurate? Is the serving line attractive and appetizing? After the meal are students required to scrape their uneaten food into a stomach-turning open trash can?

Is cleanliness the norm center-wide or just for show when visitors are expected?

Maintenance Systems

Many of our JC facilities are old and much of the maintenance on them is time and money consuming. No center can exist without a system of maintenance. Here are some features of the best I have seen:

There is a facility development plan, agreed upon by the National A&E contractor, the RO, the center operator, the staff and the students that is customer-focused.

There is a maintenance plan that outlines what resources there are to do what maintenance. The resources are usually maintenance staff, outside contractors, VST project work, rehab contractors, regular staff and students. Each of these groups should understand what they will be required to do to maintain the center.

There is one staff on center who distributes the work to the groups above according to the plan. This insures, for instance, that light bulb replacement in the dorms is not carried out by maintenance staff who should be doing such work as preventative maintenance on air handlers. I have observed this very scenario in several R3 centers.

There are a number of computer software applications which make the assignment and tracking of maintenance tasks easier. These are usually easily mastered by clerical students on WBL who can enter and update these files for the maintenance department.

Student involvement in maintenance and upkeep promotes not just the betterment of the facility but independent living skills, employability skills, and social responsibility of the students involved..

Preventative maintenance is often where centers stumble. On well maintained centers, every piece of machinery and every mechanical system has a detailed schedule of maintenance (some excellent systems also include a painting cycle for every wall on center) , usually recommended by the manufacturer/installer. This work is regularly assigned, performed and documented. When we don't do preventative maintenance, our corrective maintenance increases.

Corrective maintenance in response to regular inspections and/or maintenance work orders is prompt and well done. There should be an easily managed system so that the status (assigned/not assigned, accomplished/not accomplished, awaiting parts, etc.) Can be ascertained at any one time. Quality and safety checks must also be done of completed work.

And the facility matches the system. That is to say, a facility that appears well-maintained but has no system to do so is usually working off the instincts of the maintenance staff. These instincts can falter or personnel changes may occur which can throw the facility into disrepair very quickly. Conversely, centers which are poorly maintained by sight but look good on paper are missing the important last piece of #4 above, quality checks. Feedback is lacking.

Lastly, and most importantly, there must be a sense of ownership of the facility by students and staff. Where this is not evident, the signs are everywhere: litter isn't picked up unless the staff or center support students pick it up; the maintenance staff sees themselves as adversaries of the students and staff who keep messing up their (the maintenance staff's) facility; staff and students have mostly given up on the work order system.

Where ownership is evident, the maintenance shop is tidy, the logs and requests are well-kept, the grounds and buildings sparkle, machinery hums without sputtering and everywhere everyone is doing something to improve the collective environment. Students and staff are proud to show off where they live and work.

This RDGRAM must be shared with all staff and may be shared with students.

ATTACHMENT J-24 (Page 9 of 16)RDGRAM #4*Managing Change

This RDGRAM follows closely a crucial meeting this week with Regional Managers in which we openly discussed the critical changes that are occurring in our Job Corps program. I thought I'd take this opportunity to speak to each of you directly about these changes and the support your managers will need from you in making them.

It has been said that the only thing really constant in dynamic organizations is change and certainly we are a dynamic organization with a mission critical to the future of our country. But with so much change happening so rapidly it is important to remember that mission and to focus on what the program will gain from all these changes so that we see that the problems we may have to overcome in the short term are truly worthwhile over the long term.

Here are these changes and what I see as your role:

New PRH - This should be seen by us all as a brand new document. It needs to be not just read but studied in that light. It is more user and customer friendly. None of us can manage this change effectively unless each of you read and understand the new PRH.

Implementing CDSS - If you haven't read the new PRH you may not truly understand that CDSS is the way we do Job Corps now. It has been in this region since March 1, 2001. Some centers are still readjusting and refocusing their procedures and staffing. Our new system is a significant upgrade to the Job Corps program and especially in services to our students. You must be conversant in all phases of the system and understand what your role is. It is highly likely that your role has changed. You will be asked to do different things using different approaches that get at the continuum of services we seek. Take the training you will receive on CDSS seriously. Take notes, ask questions, be open to shifting your viewpoint. If your job is being restructured, meet that challenge with an open mind.

New OASIS, CIS and CTS - This Fall we will be eliminating the much of the paperwork that we have traditionally used in Job Corps. Student records will be compiled on line using computers on centers and in OA/CTS offices. Various staff in all departments will be making entries and building real-time records of our students that can be used to track progress and solve problems. It will make us a more streamlined and responsive organization. This will require staff to be more computer-friendly and learn some new skills. Be focused on this change when it is implemented on your center or contract. You may feel your learning curve is steep but we are providing good training by teleconference and some innovative online training. You will not be left behind. Remember, this will make record-keeping easier and the bottom line is that services to students will be significantly improved.

GED 2002 - There has been much talk about the new GED test that is on the horizon. But what you don't always hear is that the materials that will be used will be those common in the workplace and that the test will measure real-world skills.. That means the GED program will become even more effective in preparing students for the working world. Look at this as a challenge but one we should be eager to meet.

So there they are, four challenges to us all that if managed poorly or met with sufficient staff resistance could create a period of poor productivity, something costly to our customers. But if we meet them together as informed and creative members of the Job Corps team, we can take our program to a level of efficiency far beyond anything previously experienced. Our students deserve nothing less than our best effort and we must never see A business as usual@ as an option. We can never stay the same. We can never go backward. We must change.

This RDGRAM must be shared with all staff and may be shared with students.

ATTACHMENT J-24 (Page 11 of 16)RDGRAM #5*Schools and Job Corps Centers

One of the issues that has come up on several center assessments is when I or some member of my staff remarks that the center looks and feels more like a school than a Job Corps Center. What do we mean by that and why is that not necessarily a good thing?

As a former teacher, I love good schools. They have, as their primary thrust, educating their students and I find good schools energizing to be involved with. They maintain the life's blood of this country and without their precious work, we would fail as a society. But rarely are schools seen as a workplace for anyone but the staff. Students in schools see "work" as something that comes after they graduate from school. What they do in school is called "learning."

Clearly, then, if you have been involved with Job Corps for a while, you know the difference. We want our students to dress and behave as if they were in a workplace – working. That their actual job is learning does not make Job Corps the same as a school. Everything we do with students and for students is preparing them, in a holistic way, to become independent citizens. Job Corps is not just "the next step" in their education, it is a whole series of steps, made at the same time, to create a worker with a career and a future who may, or may not elect additional training, but who is ready to function in the workplace and is firmly attached to the labor market. So dedicated are we to that attachment that we continue to provide services to our students for a period of time that usually exceeds the time we served them while they were still on center. In case you haven't noticed, the Career Transition Period is very often longer than both the Career Development Period and Career Preparation Periods combined.

So I think that we, as DOL and center staff, understand the difference between schools and JCC's but do our students? They do if we set clear expectations regarding how they spend their time and how they do what they do.

What signals are we sending now? Students who sag their pants, wear the hippest big leg shorts and have their shirttails out are clearly "in" in the school setting but are "out" in the workplace. Students who hang all over each other in intimate embraces between classes are emulating what they did in school but will not be able to do this in a workplace. And who would hire a person who screams loudly across their workplace during the workday or uses vulgar language any time?

Can we truly say our cafeterias are like their counterparts in industry? Are they bustling with people eating their lunch and watching their watches so as not to be late back to work? Are there courteous cafeteria workers there presenting appetizing meals in a timely fashion?

And, on the job, is there a sense of urgency that the work is important and must be done accurately and at the maximum pace that each worker can handle? Or does a bell go off every 50 minutes and everyone takes a break?

And in the places where you have worked in the past, did you really have to be sick to go to the health unit or could you use the health unit when you just felt a little bad or wanted to lie down? But when you did have to go to the health unit, were you promptly seen by staff that acted as if they cared about your health?

Let me suggest that this be the beginning of a discussion that is long overdue on some centers. As we change the way we are doing things in Job Corps, we must also look at the way we see ourselves. I, for one, enjoyed being part of a school system, but I love being part of Job Corps. And I know the difference. How about you?

This RDGRAM must be shared with all staff and students.

RDGRAM #6High School Diplomas – Not all are created equal.

Many centers are currently making an impressive effort to obtain alternative education programs for students, including internet distance learning programs, private school affiliations, public school co-enrollments and correspondence courses, which may help deserving students, earn high school diplomas. This is clearly in the spirit of earlier directives to obtain these options. Any center that has not seriously moved forward on such initiatives needs to get going. GED attainment is still very important, but a full menu of educational options is needed at every center to meet the individual needs of students.

Some concerns have come up about the quality level of some of the programs being looked at by centers and that is what this RD GRAM is meant to address. The bottom line is that all of our students deserve a quality education that will help them achieve their career goals. The typical student is going to leave Job Corps and do one of three things: get a job, join the military, or go to college. We need to ensure that the high school programs on centers can help them do that.

Public school partnerships generally produce acceptable diplomas. These are, typically, regionally accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools or the Central States Association of Colleges and Schools. There is no question about them. The more partnerships with such regionally accredited programs, the better.

There are, however, a few “diploma mill” operations that have popped up as options. Some of these are organizations that perhaps send a packet of information to the student. The student completes a couple of lessons plus a self-administered test and sends it back with several hundred dollars and, BINGO, she or he is a high school graduate! That’s not a legitimate diploma. AND – it’s not fair to the student who may not, at the time, appreciate the fact that they just got an expensive degree that can’t really do much for them except to show it to the few employers who won’t take the time to check out it’s legitimacy. Obviously, also, it wouldn’t be fair to enter such dubious achievements as diplomas in center OMS. These operations are not acceptable under any situation!

Meanwhile, there are a number of borderline educational options that may or may not be legitimate. These are the ones I want to be very clear about so you can make good decisions on investing Job Corps dollars into such programs. Here’s how to avoid the pitfalls here:

Legitimate programs have some type of legitimate accreditation. The best have the same regional accreditation as public schools and these are, of course, acceptable. Others will have accreditation by national organizations such as the National Private Schools Association Group or the Distance Education and Training Council. Operations may be from an on-site private school, a correspondence course where there are lessons to complete thru the mail, or over the internet. They will have a verifiable physical location other than a Post Office Box.

A business license in a particular state or even registration with the State Board of Education is not necessarily evidence of an appropriate program for our students.

Legitimate programs have core curriculum and structured delivery systems. Oversight is provided by credentialed education professionals. This means real people, not an automatic scoring system or stand-alone software program. While some programs may have some acceleration, there must be an obvious level of effort needed to meet competencies. You can't start with zero high school credits and finish a complete diploma in just 6 months. If it sounds "too good to be true," it probably is.

Legitimate programs are accepted as valid high school diplomas by the military and institutions of higher learning. Documentation should indicate that the degree is accepted at a minimum of "Tier II" and preferably as "Tier I" by the U.S. Army. At least two or more accredited colleges or tech schools in the center's zone of influence (or state) for returning students must accept the diploma for admissions.

Note: "Tier II" for the U.S. Army means that the diploma is accepted the same as a regular GED. That means an ASVAB of 50 or higher must accompany it, plus there must be a Tier II slot available. Since only about 10% of all Army recruits are Tier II, the typical such diploma student competes for limited slots and likely will not get into the Army. In addition, most local colleges, very likely will not accept diplomas that only qualify for the Army's Tier II.

In comparison, be aware that a GED plus Job Corps graduation equals "Tier I" which is the same as a regular high school diploma by the U.S. Army. For Job Corps graduates, under our special partnership, an ASVAB of only 31 is an acceptable score. This means the Army will accept almost anyone who earns these two credentials.

IMPORTANT: Check out alternative programs carefully. Do not enroll students unless you know exactly what you are buying. Question anything less than programs fully equivalent to regionally accredited public schools. If you choose to use such programs for some students, ensure that the student fully understands, in writing, the difference between the diploma they are getting and a regular one. And if the program doesn't meet the criteria above, don't credit graduates on the OMS.

RDGRAM #7Career Management – Why take a case management approach?

Over the past two years many staff members in Region 3 have been trained in Career Development Facilitation (CDF). The term “case management” has also been used but some are confused about that term and how it relates to CDF concepts. I am taking this opportunity to provide some clarification.

The case management concept is used in a variety of fields from social work and medical services, to financial management and more. Just put “case management” into a web browser and see how many hits you get. In preparing this I did that and noted Google lists over 567,000 hits and their first page list includes at least three organizations whose sole aim is to instruct and disseminate information on the concept. Anywhere services must be exactly matched to needs; there is a desire to customize the program to suit the customer or patient. So there are now literally hundreds of trainers and software systems supporting the concept.

But what is it, really? Well, in short, customers or clients are assessed and matched with services. Then a case manager or case management team collaborates through counseling and information sharing with the client and among key players. Then, as progress is made and the client’s needs change, so does the strategy. Documentation is important all along the way. This is exactly what was taught in CDF training. But, wait a minute, isn’t this what Job Corps has always done, even before the training?

The answer is “yes” and “no.” Certainly to the extent we have done this we have been successful but, far too often, we have fallen short. For instance, the initial assessments we make are sometimes perfunctory at best and based more on what the center has to offer than what the student needs. Other times we make good assessments but fail to use them or pass them along to staff who will need them. A good Career Preparation program will feature a significant assessment of students’ needs and desires and will have an array of services both on and off center to meet at least those needs. And then what has been learned in CPP will be shared in CDP.

What about those evaluations we do every 60 days or so to measure progress? First of all, clearly, a customized program would require that assessment intervals also be customized, wouldn’t it? I mean every student’s needs cannot be adequately served by case feedback every 60 days. In fact, I would offer that no student’s needs could really be met with that infrequent feedback. And I am not talking about the day to day joiners like, “Good job” and “Watch out.” I am talking about a person or team of people evaluating exactly where the student is in the program and providing substantive feedback and developing strategies to get the student through the entire CDSS process obtaining the maximum benefits our program has to offer. That program ends, you will remember, in a career.

The documentation I mentioned, isn't that now the ePCDP? It is certainly part of it, as are other items such as case notes, the TAR's and most entries in CIS. In fact, the required Job Corps documentation can be enough if we use it to accomplish the mission and not make it the mission. Ask yourself, when you complete these forms, "Is anyone going to be able to use what I have written to help make this young person a success?" If what you really most often ask yourself is, "Is what I have written going to fulfill the requirement to fill this out?" then your efforts may meet the requirement but it may not meet the student's need.

Those of you who have attended meetings with me at the lectern have heard me say that I believe why we do what we do is often more important than what we do. I am convinced that is important to this discussion.

I can understand, for instance, how staff at an auto plant may only be interested in getting their individual jobs right. They may say that if everyone just does their job on the assembly line right, the cars will be just fine. But we all well know that students are not cars, they are members of a sacred trust given us to help move into society, fulfilling each student's true potential. We must be focused on the importance of not just getting our individual jobs right, then, but on collectively ensuring the success of the students in that trust. The case management concept facilitates that.

As you read this, look around, right now and notice the first couple of students you see. Don't they deserve the best career management we can give them? And is that what they are getting? Only when you can answer a resounding "yes!" to both questions are we where we should be.

I welcome your comments on this and any Region 3 policy or priority. You can reach me at scott.donald@dol.gov.

Office of Job Corps
Performance Based Service Contracting Plan

INTRODUCTION:

Performance Based Service Contracting (PBSC) is an approach to procuring services using contract requirements described in objective terms with measurable outcomes, and relating the contractor's total payment directly to how well the contractor has met those requirements. PBSC is an outgrowth of the Government Performance Results Act, and, as such, focuses on specifying desired outcomes rather than on prescribing how the work is to be performed.

1. Contractor's Fee:

The contractor's fee will be a combination of fixed and incentive fees. The contractor will be paid a base fixed fee, (lower than the customary fixed fee for the type of work). The remaining fee amounts will be used to establish a National incentive fee pool. The contractor will have the opportunity to earn additional fee (up to and above the customary level) based on achievement of Outcome Measurement System (OMS) goals within a performance range established by the government. Incentive fee will be paid from the National incentive pool.

In addition, the contractor will have an opportunity to earn a performance bonus for excellent performance as defined by the Director of Job Corps.

2. Establishing the Performance Range:

The performance range for each upcoming year will be established annually by the Director of Job Corps and will be based on the performance of all contracts on the Outcome Measurement System (OMS) Report Card for the preceding Program Year. The performance range will identify maximum and minimum payment points as follows:

Maximum: level at which the contractor receives the maximum available incentive fee payment.

Minimum: level below which the contractor receives no incentive fee payment

Incremental incentive fee payment points will be established for each level of OMS performance (to one decimal point) within the established performance range, i.e. incentive fee amounts will be established incrementally for 90.0%, 90.1%, 90.2%, etc.

To ensure that eventual costs to the government do not exceed budget availability, the performance range will be set so that there is a balanced distribution between higher and lower performers. Under this system, a contractor performing at an average level would receive a total fee (base + incentive fee) equating to the approximate current average contractor fee.

In order to motivate and reward excellence in performance, those contracts whose performance exceeds the top of the National Performance Range will be eligible to earn a Performance Excellence Bonus. The bonus will be awarded for performance up to 10 OMS points above the top of the National Performance Range.

Performance ranges may fluctuate from year to year based on performance history for the preceding year. Each contractor's performance will be evaluated based on the portion of the contract year that occurred during the Program Year for which the performance range was in effect.

3. Establishing Fee Levels:

Base Fixed Fee: As described in the RFP, each offeror will propose a base fixed fee for the contract that shall not exceed 3.6% of total direct + indirect costs. This equates to 75% of the current average fixed fee (4.8%) for all center contracts with for-profit entities. Fee will be expressed in the resultant contract as a dollar amount rather than as a percentage.

Incentive Fee: Incentive fee payments will be earned by the contractor based on the level of achievement within the established National performance range. A range of incentive fee payments will be available with the maximum being 2.4% of total direct + indirect costs (or 2/3 the base fixed fee), and the minimum being $0. Incentive fee amounts will be distributed in equal increments throughout the performance range. Incentive Fee will be expressed in the resultant contract as a dollar amount rather than as a percentage.

Performance Excellence Bonus: The amount of the Performance Excellence Bonus pool for the contract will be equal to 10% of the maximum total fee (base fixed fee + incentive fee). The bonus pool will be distributed in equal incremental amounts throughout the bonus range.

4. Performance Evaluation Periods:

An Incentive Fee evaluation and fee payout reconciliation will be made annually for each contract at the end of the contract year.

ATTACHMENT J-26 (Page 3 of 5)5. Billing and Payment of Fees:

Base fixed fee will be billed in equal monthly or semi-monthly increments throughout the contract year.

Incentive fee will be billed in equal monthly or semi-monthly increments at the level equal to 1.2%, the level that would be earned for average performance.

Upon completion of the contract year, the Contracting Officer will evaluate the contractor's overall performance, determine the level of incentive fee actually earned by the contractor, and issue a bilateral contract modification to adjust (add or reduce) incentive fee to the level earned.

Performance Excellence Bonuses will be awarded at the end of the contract year, along with other incentive fees earned by the contractor.

6. Encouraging Competition For Historically Poor Performing Centers:

For a contract designated by the Contracting Officer as 'historically poor performing', when a new contract is awarded and the successful operator is a non-incumbent, a fixed fee not to exceed 4.8% shall be paid for the first half of the base contract period, i.e. 1st year for center operations contracts. This is equivalent to the base fixed fee + incentive fee that would be earned by a contractor whose performance equaled the satisfactory performance level. The incentive fee provisions will become effective with the beginning of the 2nd half of the base contract period, year 2 for center operations contracts. Beginning with the second year of the base contract, the new contractor's fixed fee shall revert to an amount not to exceed 3.6%, and eligibility for incentives shall commence. Billing shall follow provisions described in Section 5, above. This provision is intended to hold the new contractor harmless for results attributable to the former contractor.

7. Example:

The following example demonstrates the application of the Incentive Fee Plan to a new center award based on various OMS overall ratings. In the example, the period of performance for the contract year crosses the Program Year, and is, therefore, covered by 2 different performance ranges. For purposes of the example:

- Incremental payment points within a performance range are shown with no decimal places. In practice, payment increments will be established for OMS ratings to one decimal place.

Sample performance ranges are shown. The actual performance ranges will be established for each PY based on the performance of all centers for the previous year.

(b) A narrative justification for each line item of the ETA 2110 for the base year. Include all explanatory narratives and calculations showing how costs are determined. For the second base year, provide detailed narrative only for those costs that exceed the OMB inflationary rate. Historical data may be used to the extent that it can be shown to be relevant to this specific procurement, reflective of any changed conditions and circumstances. Provide narrative justification for each line item showing how the labor, material, travel, subcontractors, facility maintenance, and other costs outlined on the ETA 2110 were determined. Include the backup data to support the type of labor and estimated numbers of staff within each labor category.

The facility shall be provided as Government-furnished property at no cost to the contractor.

For center operations, the contractor shall propose a fee consisting of a base fixed fee and an incentive fee. The base fixed fee shall not exceed 3.6% of total direct and indirect costs. The incentive fee shall be proposed at a level equal to 1.2% of total direct and indirect costs (the level that will be used for invoicing purposes.) It is understood that the incentive fee range shall be from $0 to 2.4% of total direct and indirect costs. In addition, the contractor will have the opportunity to earn a Performance Excellence Bonus in accordance with Job Corps' Incentive Fee plan. However, the Performance Excellence Bonus should not be included in the offeror's cost proposal, but will be identified in the resultant contract. At the end of the contract year, the contractor's performance shall be evaluated and incentive fee paid in accordance with Section G.

Under those ETA 2110 line items relating to staff costs, show your computations in the following vertical columns: (1) position title; (2) number of positions in terms of full-time equivalents (FTEs); (3) range of annual salaries/wages for the position title; (4) average direct annual salary/wages on a per FTE basis (5) average benefits and other indirect employee compensation costs on a per FTE basis; (6) total employee compensation cost to the contract for each position title. Individual, separate staff position costs will be included in the narrative justification for each line item of the ETA 2110. Do not consolidate costs for similar positions. Show each position cost separately.

Include a breakdown of the amount estimated for travel, including destination, duration, purpose and cost (per diem and transportation).

Include backup data to support the estimated amount of material and subcontracting (if applicable), including description of materials to be procured, basis for proposed subcontract, and amounts proposed.

Subcontract information shall contain the list of names and addresses of any proposed subcontractors or consultants the offeror intends to use in the performance of the contract. Include the following information about subcontractors in excess of $25,000:

The Government shall have the unilateral right to exercise options to extend the contract for additional year(s) pursuant to Clauses 52.217-08 and -09 of the Schedule, "Option to Extend." Such extensions shall herein after be referred to as "options."

The offerors will explain how the costs for each option year were estimated. A budget for each option year will be submitted on an ETA 2110. The contractor understands that the estimated costs for operating the Job Corps center in each of the option years will be based on the agreed-to budget for ongoing expense in the preceding year, with an appropriate adjustment for price inflation using the same inflationary factor that is reflected in the Congressional Job Corps appropriation for the budget or program year in which the option year begins. The amounts proposed in the Option Years are therefore considered provisional. For the purposes of this RFP, the inflationary rate used in projecting costs shall be 2.1%.

6. Cost and Price Analysis Summary – OA/CTS (if applicable)

7. Narrative Cost Detail – OA/CTS (if applicable)

It is understood that the incentive fee range shall be from $0 to 2.4% of total direct and indirect costs. In addition, the contractor will have the opportunity to earn a Performance Excellence Bonus in accordance with Job Corps' Incentive Fee plan. However, the Performance Excellence Bonus should not be included in the offeror's cost proposal, but will be identified in the resultant contract. At the end of the contract year, the contractor's performance shall be evaluated and incentive fee paid in accordance with Section G.

Such extensions shall herein after be referred to as "options."

The offerors will explain how the costs for each option year were estimated. A budget for each option year will be submitted on an ETA 2110 OA/CTS. The contractor understands that the estimated costs for operating the Job Corps outreach/admissions and career transition services program in each of the option years will be based on the agreed-to budget for ongoing expense in the preceding year, with an appropriate adjustment for price inflation using the same inflationary factor that is reflected in the Congressional Job Corps appropriation for the budget or program year in which the option year begins. The amounts proposed in the Option Years are therefore considered provisional. For the purposes of this RFP, the inflationary rate used in projecting costs shall be 2.1%

The facility shall be provided as Government-furnished property at no cost to the contractor.

6. Transition/Phase-out Proposal

Incumbents shall submit a Phase-Out Proposal and new offerors shall submit a Transition Proposal. Narrative and cost justification shall be bound together in the Transition/Phase-Out Proposal.

The Government recognizes that if the incumbent contractor is not the successful offeror, the successful offeror will then take over an existing Job Corps center operation as negotiated. If so, the incoming contractor will have a transition period in which to become familiar with the presently operating center, as well as time to interview and hire staff necessary to operate the center.

The successful offeror will be required to take over complete operation of the center with the start of performance under the resultant contract. The transition period begins no less than 30 days prior to that date and will be negotiated as a separate statement of work.

Accordingly, offerors other than the incumbent contractor should submit a separate proposal outlining in detail their transition plan. Included will be the period of time required for each action, staff requirements, and major steps to be accomplished during the transition period. The Government also recognizes that if the incumbent is not the successful offeror, the incumbent contractor will have certain activities to perform in the orderly phase-out of operations; therefore, the incumbent shall submit a 30-day Phase-Out Proposal outlining in detail the phase-out plan. Included will be the period of time involved for each action, staff requirements, and major steps to be accomplished during the phase-out period. The phase-out period will begin the same time as the transition period, 30 days prior to the end of the incumbent's contract, and end on the last day of the incumbent's contract.

It is the intent of the Government to have an orderly operation during the last 30 days of the incumbent's contract (see Clause 52.237-3, Continuity of Service). Therefore, the incumbent contractor will be allowed only the normal costs of operating the center for the final month of the contract. The incumbent's administrative activities required to orient the incoming contractor will be an allowable direct cost. It is the Government's expectation that the outgoing contractor will use persons already included in its organizational indirect cost package for such activities as inventory comparison checks with the new contractor and final billings comparison checks with the new contractor and final billings after contract expiration. The allowable cost for Phase-Out will be limited to unused and unpaid leave for which cost accrual has not been made and if applicable, severance pay and relocation in accordance with personnel policies approved for this contract by the contracting officer and any other costs determined to be reasonable by the contracting officer.

There will be only one operating contractor responsible for the center's operation at any given time. Transition preparations shall not cause any unreasonable interference with the departing contractor's operation. When the new contractor begins operations, the former contractor will not cause any unreasonable interference with the new operator's program.

For purposes of this procurement, the Government will consider Past Performance and Experience information for the offeror or entity proposed as the prime contractor. Past performance and experience of proposed subcontractors will not be evaluated under this criteria.

a. New Firms (other than Job Corps Outreach, Admissions, and/or Career Transition Services Contractors):

For purposes of this procurement, in addition to the information provided by the offeror in response to Section L, the Government will consider information received from other governmental and non-governmental sources.

The Government will focus on information that demonstrates quality of performance relative to the size and complexity of the procurement under consideration. The contractor's references will assist in collecting this information. References other than those identified by the offeror, may be used by the Government. All such information may be used in the evaluation of the offeror's past performance.

The Government reserves the right not to contact all of the references provided by the offeror. Names of individuals providing reference information about an offeror's past performance shall not be disclosed.

Past Performance and Experience will be evaluated using the criteria, point distribution and sources shown below:

Criteria:	Relevant Experience	Past Effectiveness
Possible Points:	20	5
Source:	Relevant/Transferable Experience Matrix	Past Experience Confirmation Questionnaire

b. New Firms (Job Corps Outreach, Admission, and/or Placement Contractors):

In addition to the information provided by the offeror in response to Section L, the Government will consider such additional information as may provide further insight on the offeror's past experience and performance, and how such experience demonstrates the offeror's ability to perform the contract, including but not limited to the offeror's OA/CTS automated past effectiveness report(s) and the past effectiveness report(s) received from other Job Corps offices.

The Government will focus on information that demonstrates quality of performance relative to the size and complexity of the procurement under consideration. The contractor's references identified in this section will assist in collecting this information. References other than those identified by the offeror may be used by the Government. All such information may be used in the evaluations of the offeror's past performance.

The Government reserves the right not to contact all of the references provided by the offeror. Names of individuals providing reference information about an offeror's past performance shall not be disclosed.

Past Performance and Experience will be evaluated using the criteria, point distribution and sources shown below:

Criteria:	Relevant Experience	Past Effectiveness
Possible Points:	20	5
Source:	Relevant/Transferable Experience Matrix, Automated OA/CTS Score	Past Experience Confirmation Questionnaire, Contractor Past Experience Report

c. New Firms (Without Relevant Experience)

A firm without a record of relevant past experience shall receive a neutral rating of 12.5 points.

d. Experienced Job Corps Center Operators: (Center Operations)

Past Performance will be evaluated using the criteria, point distribution and sources shown below:

Criteria:	Past Performance	Effectiveness
Possible Points:	20	5
Source:	Automated Past Effectiveness Report	Contractor Past Effectiveness Reports, Contractor's Submission

The Past Effectiveness rating for an experienced Job Corps center operator is based on a combination of the Job Corps Automated Past Effectiveness Report (20 points) and Additional Information (up to 5 points) at the discretion of the Contracting Officer.

(1) Automated Past Effectiveness Report (20 points)

Each center operator will receive an automated past effectiveness score based on the contractors' Outcome Measurement System (OMS) Report. The Automated Past Effectiveness score will be generated automatically on a quarterly basis, by the Job Corps Data Center.

Further, in the event that the offeror is the incumbent contractor for the Center being procured, the offeror will be evaluated using the weighted incumbent center score.

For example, if Center A is being procured and the incumbent contractor is XYZ Corp. To determine XYZ's past effectiveness score for that Center, the number shown in the 75% Rating column of the Center's Automated Past Effectiveness Report will be used.

For center operations contracts that include Outreach/Admissions and/or Career Transition Services responsibilities, the Contracting Officer will determine the relative weights to be used for the OA and CTS automated scores in relation to center operations automated score. For purposes of this procurement, the following percentages will apply:

Center Operations	O/A	CTS

(2) Additional Information (5 points)

In assigning these points, the contracting officer will consider such additional information as may provide further insight on the offeror's past experience and performance, and how such experience demonstrates the offeror's ability to perform the contract, including but not limited to, Contractor Past Effectiveness Reports (CPEs) received from other Job Corps Offices and other Federal Agencies, and the information submitted by the contractor.

The Government reserves the right not to contact all of the references provided by the offeror. Names of individuals providing reference information about an offeror's past performance shall not be disclosed.

4. Subcontracting Plan (5 points) (Small Businesses automatically receive 5 points)

Subcontracting plans shall be evaluated in terms of the following:

- a. To what extent does the plan fully address all aspects of FAR 52.219-9?
- b. How effective is the proposal in offering concrete, feasible, proven strategies and methods to ensure the achievement of small business goals in each category?
- c. To what extent does the offeror plan to subcontract major program components? (The Office of Job Corps seeks to provide incentives for subcontract major portions of Center operations. Therefore, offerors proposing to subcontract key program components may be eligible for maximum points, i.e. major components - Residential Living, Academic Education, Vocational Training, Administration; minor components - OA&CTS, Health Services).

Plans that do not meet minimum federally mandated goals shall receive 0 points.

5. Cost Justification-Business Management Proposal (8 points)

The Cost Justification evaluation is a technical assessment of whether the costs proposed are fair and reasonable. In evaluating the Cost Justification, the government will evaluate the credibility and reasonableness of the cost proposal relative to the technical proposal. The cost must be realistic in relation to the services offered.

The evaluation will include an analysis of the specific elements of the offeror's cost proposal to determine whether proposed cost elements:

- ☐ Reflect a clear understanding of contract requirements;
- ☐ Are realistic for the work to be performed;
- ☐ Are consistent with the methods of performance and materials described in the offeror's technical proposal;
- ☐ Assure a reasonable and prudent expenditure of Federal funds in the performance of this contract.

A cost realism analysis shall be performed to determine the probable cost of performance for each offeror. The probable cost shall reflect the Government's best estimate of the cost of a contract that is most likely to result from the offeror's proposal. The government shall determine the probable cost by adjusting each offeror's proposed cost to reflect any additions or reductions in cost elements to realistic levels based on the results of the government's cost realism analysis.

In evaluating the Cost Proposal, the Government will take the following factors into consideration:

- a. Adherence to RFP requirements.
- b. Explanation and support of all costs proposed: wages, benefits, utilities, services, supplies, etc.
- c. Explanation and support of G&A costs. G&A costs should be supported by a full description of services to be provided to the center by corporate support staff. The Cost Justification proposal may propose a G&A ceiling rate higher or lower than the approved provisional rate. The proposed rate, if accepted, will become the ceiling for the entire contract period, including option years. Offerors must calculate G&A Expense at the proposed G&A ceiling rate.
- d. Consistency of costs with technical proposal. Mathematical errors, incompleteness of data, improper line item designations, etc., will be discussed with the offerors in the competitive range, if necessary.
- e. Total compensation plan for all employees

The Government will evaluate the Total Compensation plan to ensure that this compensation reflects a sound management approach and an understanding of the requirements to be performed. It will include an assessment of the offeror's ability to provide uninterrupted work of high quality. The total compensation proposed will be evaluated in terms of enhancing recruitment and retention of personnel and its realism and consistency with a total plan for compensation (both salaries and fringe benefits). Therefore, the cost justification evaluation category will include an assessment of the Total Compensation Plan.

- (1) In establishing compensation levels for all employees, the total compensation (both salaries, fringe benefits, bonuses, or monetary awards to employees) proposed shall reflect a clear understanding of the requirements of the work to be accomplished and the suitability of the proposed compensation structure to obtain and retain qualified personnel. The salary rates or ranges must recognize the distinct differences in skills and the complexity of varied disciplines as well as job difficulty. Proposals offering total compensation levels less than currently being paid by the predecessor contractor for the same work will be evaluated on the basis of maintaining program continuity, uninterrupted work of high quality, and availability of required competent employees. Offerors are cautioned that instances of lowered compensation for essentially the same work may be considered a lack of sound management judgment in addition to indicating a lack of understanding of the complexity of the requirements.

- (2) Proposals which are unrealistically low or do not reflect a reasonable relationship of compensation to the job categories so as to impair the contractor's ability to recruit and retain competent employees may be viewed as reflecting a failure to comprehend the complexity of the contract requirements. The Government is concerned with the quality and stability of the work force to be employed on this contract. The compensation data required will be used in evaluation of the offeror's understanding of the contract requirements.
- (3) An assessment of the potential for adverse effect upon performance and maintenance of the required number of employees with requisite skills resulting from an unrealistically low compensation structure will also be made.

6. Transition/Phase-out Proposal (0 points)

Although no points are assigned to this portion of the submission, all offerors, with the exception of the incumbent, are required to submit a transition proposal. The incumbent shall submit a phase-out proposal.

Transition proposals shall be evaluated to determine the following:

- To what extent does the offeror's plan display knowledge of the scope of tasks to be accomplished in transition?
- How effective is the offeror in proposing complete and concrete plans and procedures to effect an orderly transition of the Job Corps center and OA & CTS functions?
- To what extent are the corporate resources/staffing proposed adequate to complete the scope of tasks outlined in the transition plan?

M.2 SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION

The following information is presented to further assist offerors in responding to this RFP, as well as to provide information regarding how the Government will make the award decision.

A. Notice on Key Personnel

Offerors shall indicate whether persons being proposed as key personnel are currently being proposed as key personnel for any other projects. Offerors must notify the Contracting Officer in writing of any change in the availability of proposed key personnel when the change in status occurs, at any point in the procurement process.

Prior to award of a contract the Government will ask the successful offeror to verify the availability of all named Key Personnel. If for any reason, the named Key Personnel will not be assigned to this project, the offeror may submit the name and qualifications of one of more proposed replacements. If, in the opinion of the Contracting Officer, a person proposed as a replacement is of substantially equivalent qualifications, award may still be made to the offeror. If proposed replacements are not equivalent, the contracting officer may find the offeror non-responsible. The contracting officer may then award the contract to another offeror or reopen negotiations with all offerors.

B. Competitive Range

In instances where more than one proposal is found acceptable, the Contracting Officer shall establish a competitive range in accordance with FAR 15.306. The competitive range will consist of proposals which, based upon review panel scores, are grouped at more or less the same level and are competitive with one another. The limits of what constitutes the competitive range in a particular case is a matter of judgement for determination by the Contracting Officer.

In accordance with FAR Subpart 15.3, the Contracting Officer may limit the number of offerors in the competitive range to the number that will permit an efficient competition among the most highly rated proposals.

C. Discussions – Oral Presentations - Final Proposal Revisions

Discussions will be held with all offerors who submit proposals determined to be within the competitive range. The Contracting Officer may limit the number of offerors in the competitive range (FAR 52.215-1). However, in some instances, award may be made on the basis of initial proposals received (FAR 52.215-1). If discussions are conducted, offerors shall be required to make an oral presentation and shall be given an opportunity to submit such costs, technical, or other revisions in their proposals as may result from the discussions. All such offerors shall be informed in writing of the closing of negotiations and the common due date for receipt of Final Proposal Revisions (FPR). Technical revisions will be in writing as a response to the Government's written concerns. The Final Technical Proposal Revision shall be limited to responses to the government's concerns, a revised staffing resources proposal and staffing chart will be submitted as part of the FPR. The Cost Justification proposal shall be revised to the extent necessary to reflect all cost-related changes. In the event that an offeror's Final Proposal Revision does not fully substantiate costs or explain noted cost inconsistencies, the proposal score may be downgraded.

D. Selection for Award

Award will be made to the offeror who has submitted the proposal that offers the best value to the Government. In making this determination, all evaluation factors other than cost or price, when combined, are significantly more important than cost or price.

Calculation and Evaluation of Cost

The term "cost" as used in this RFP is defined as the total of the estimated cost, including G&A and overhead expense, and the fixed and incentive fee. In evaluation of costs, the Government will use the probable cost of a contract resulting from the offeror's proposal, as determined by the Government in accordance with FAR 15.4. The following will be considered in making the final selection of the successful offeror:

Base two-year costs

Option year costs

Total Costs

Transition costs

Phase-out costs

Price Evaluation Adjustments: For full and open competitive procurements, the Contracting Officer will evaluate offers by making the following adjustments:

Small Disadvantaged Businesses: adding a factor of 10 percent (10%) to the price of all offers, except offers from small disadvantaged business concerns that have not waived the adjustment.

HUBZone Businesses: adding a factor of 10 percent (10%) to the price of all offers except:

Offers from HUBZone small business concerns that have not waived the evaluation preference, and Otherwise successful offers from small business concerns.

c. A concern that is both a HUBZone small business concern and a small disadvantaged business concern will receive the benefit of both the HUBZone small business price evaluation preference and the small disadvantaged business price evaluation adjustment (see FAR clause 52.219-23). Each applicable price evaluation preference or adjustment shall be calculated independently against an offeror's base offer. These individual preference amounts shall be added together to arrive at the total evaluated price for that offer.

Except when it is determined, in accordance with FAR 17.206(b) not to be in the Government's best interests, the Government will evaluate offers for award purposes by adding the total costs for all options to the total costs for the basic requirement. Evaluation of options will not obligate the Government to exercise the options. In evaluating the total five (5) year costs, the Government will place more weight on the base two (2) year costs because of the uncertainty of award of option years.

After a cost analysis of each Business Management Proposal for the base period (i.e., the base two-year period for the operation of the center), the options, and the total cost, a further evaluation will be performed to determine the reasonableness of cost presented in the Phase-Out Proposal and/or the Transition Proposal. The incumbent will not incur a transition cost, and the phase-out cost will act as a negative factor for a challenging offeror when considering total estimated cost. In consideration of the above, it is imperative that the incumbent does not overstate phase-out costs, as they will be reduced for cost comparison purposes based on their failure to meet the test of reasonableness noted above.

The contracting officer's decision to award an option will be made in accordance with FAR 17.207(c).

M.3 CONTRACTOR RESPONSIBILITY

The Contracting Officer will make a determination of responsibility in accordance with FAR 9.105-2. Should a determination of non-responsibility be made, the offeror will be dropped from consideration for contract award regardless of technical scores and cost. In the case of a small business concern, the matter will be referred to the Small Business Administration pursuant to FAR 19.6. Factors considered in determining responsibility include:

Financial resource adequacy

Ability to comply with the Statement of Work

Past record of performance

Record of integrity and business ethics

History of prevention and management of significant incidents, if offeror has previously operated or is presently operating a Job Corps center

Department of Labor review reports of offeror's Job Corps Center(s) if offeror has previously operated or is presently operating a center

Program and fiscal controls

Quality and quantity of corporate staff available to support this contract

M.4 EVALUATION OF OPTIONS (JULY 1990)

Except when it is determined in accordance with FAR 17.206(b) not to be in the Government's best interests, the Government will evaluate offers for award purposes by adding the total price for all options to the total price for the basic requirement. Evaluation of options will not obligate the Government to exercise the option(s).
